In The Playhouse

THE TROJAN WOMEN
by Euripides

Representing Greece in our European Tour, this is probably the greatest play written by the greatest Greek playwright.

The action of the play takes place after the sacking of Troy by the Greeks. It tells the story of the women of the defeated city, from the lowest slave to the wife and daughters of King Priam.

30 May, 2, 3, 5, 6, June at 7.45pm
Sunday Matinee 31 May at 3.00pm
